DAYTONA BEACH – The 7th annual Halifax Urban Ministries Blue Diamond Fundraising Gala and Dinner is Saturday, April 30, at The Club at Pelican Bay.

The HUM Blue Diamond is one of the area's top fundraising galas. It is known for great speakers and a fast-paced evening. This year's theme is a "Celebration of Hope" and highlights the accomplishments in homeless prevention and intervention with a look toward the future of Hope Place.

The event will feature a reception and music, followed by a gourmet meal. Master of ceremonies Mark Geallis, will present Judi Winch, executive director of Food Brings Hope, with the Corporate Social Responsibility Award. Ray Salazar, past president of Volusia Flagler United Way, will receive The John C. Allen, Jr. Humanitarian Award.

Jayson Meyer, founder and CEO of Synergy Billing and the 2016 Young Professional of the Year, will present the keynote address.

Individual reservations are $75 and table sponsorships start at $250. Make reservations or sponsorships before Monday, April 18, by contacting Ginny Kent at 386-252-0156 or ginny@halifaxurbanministries.org, or online at halifaxurbanministries.org.
